

GRAHAM THORBURN
DIRECTOR
NBRS+PARTNERS SYDNEY

QUALIFICATIONS: Registered Architect
REGISTERED ARCHITECT: 5706 (NSW), 2905 (QLD)

EXPERTISE: Design and realization of all building types, management of complex design and construction problems. Socially relevant design. Environmentally conscious buildings.

Graham joined NBRS+Partners in 1969 and having previously worked on a number of schools and banks for Robertson Marks Architects. His first project at NBRS+Partners were 2 schools in Canberra.

Projects have included schools, hospitals, courts, prisons, residential and aged care buildings as well as urban design projects.

Recent work includes advising the Victorian Department of Justice on 2 Public Private Partnership Prisons and most recently on the master planning of their future prison needs, and a residential development in Wagga Wagga.

He is director at NBRS+Partners, directing teams on a diverse range of projects including prisons, residential and urban design projects.

