

ROBERT STAAS
DIRECTOR
NBRS+PARTNERS SYDNEY

QUALIFICATIONS: Bachelor of Architecture (SIT) 1975
Diploma in Conservation Studies (York) 1979
Master of the Built Environment (Building Conservation) 1987

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS: Heritage Advisor to Mosman Council, 1996 to present
Member of the Church Property Advisory Panel NSW Heritage Office, 1985-2000
Vice Chairman RAIA (NSW) Architecture Conservation Committee, 1992-1997
Member RAIA (NSW) Architecture Conservation Committee, 1980-2000
Fellow Royal Australian Institute of Architects
Member National Trust of Australia NSW

PUBLICATIONS Joint author of "Care of Church Buildings", NSW Heritage Office publication
Architectural Styles in Mosman, Mosman Municipal Council
Joint Author Dupain's Sydney, State Library of NSW

EXPERTISE: Heritage Architecture Design and realization of all building types, management of complex design and construction problems. Socially relevant design. Environmentally conscious buildings.

Robert joined NBRS+Partners in 1971 following three years with Hely Bell & Horn. He received his Bachelor of Architecture from the NSW Institute of Technology in 1975 and in 1979 received a post graduate diploma in Conservation Studies from York University (UK) and in 1987 received a Masters Degree in the Built Environment (Conservation) from the University of NSW.

Robert specialises in Heritage Conservation projects which has included Wynyard Park, Capital Square, Grace Bros Broadway and St Marks Church Darling Point. He has carried out the Heritage Strategy for the Australian Broadcasting Corporation and the Reserve Bank of Australia. He is heritage advisor to various local councils an Expert Witness in the Land and Environment Court. He is a director at NBRS+Partners leading a team of heritage specialists.

